

Jennifer Nobles

Credit Recovery Specialist – Eastern Region

Mrs. Nobles started her education career as a Mathematics teacher, serving in Wake, New Hanover and Cumberland County. She came to NCVPS/Learn and Earn Online from the Cumberland Web Academy where she served as an online math teacher and credit recovery coordinator. Her duties as a credit recovery specialist are to work with districts in the support and implementation of effective student support models for online credit recovery. Mrs. Nobles also handles the development and implementation of both face to face and online training for districts in regards to blended credit recovery courses. She currently serves as the lead project manager for Web 2.0 tools and ‘virtual environments’.

Mrs. Nobles holds a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics Education from North Carolina State University.

Personal Vision Statement

Every North Carolina student regardless of their geographic location or local school budget deserves the opportunity to compete academically. Online learning offers those opportunities through access to advanced placement and college level courses in a 21st Century environment. My commitment is to provide opportunities for success for all students.
